"OLLIE" LANHAM A SKIN GAMBLER.

His Novel Device to Rob Thought to Be a Pickpocket's Tool.

Detectives Kinney and Thornton arrested Clifford Arney on the charge of loitering yesterday afternoon, but from later developments Captain Splann is inclined to think something more important may grow out of the arrest. When Arney was searched were found upon his person. They have knife-blade attachments that might be used very handily by a pickpocket in cutting open a pocket. The blades can be concealed by turning the rings around so the blades lay flat in the palm of the hand. When worn in this way they have the harmless appearance of plain gold band rings, but it is easy to believe they would become very useful in the hands of an expert thief. Arney made a seemingly plausible statement when questioned, but Captain Splann regards the explanation with considerable spicion. Arney said the rings were gam-ng devices, and had been made to order for "Ollie" Lanham, a well-known gambler. According to Arney's statements, the rings were to be used in cheating at "craps." He says that by turning the hand sideways the balze cover of a crap-table could be pricked over once after they had settled, thus enabling the player to make any point he might desire. Lanham was at the station se, and stated that the rings had been made for him. He said that he and Arney had intended to visit other cities for the purpose of "working" a "sure-thing" craps game. Lanham is well known to the police, and his statements are not received with the utmost confidence. The matter will receive further attention from the detectives. Federal Building Committee. President Erwin of the Commercial Club has appointed the following committee from federal building: Mayor Taggart, C. W. Fairbanks, J. H. Holliday, John R. Wilson, Colonel Eli Lilly, A. L. Mason, H. H. Hanna, A. Kiefer and Frank A. Maus. The commercial organizations' committee, will A. Arthur, of Goshen, and Myron D. King, be composed of Judge Baker, ex-Congress- secretary, of this city. Among those who

More Room for Ward Workers-Street Commissioner Couldn't Locate

His Gangs.

The present city administration is increasing the street pay rolls at a steady rate. More men are being employed now than usual at this time of year. Street Commissioner Herpeck claims a large force is absolutely necessary, for he found many things needing attention. At present between seventy-five and one hundred men are at work on the streets. At the street commissioner's office it was said yesterday that the different gangs could not be located, for they were "first here and then there." Few of the men employed served under the former administration. Mr. Taggart has demonstrated that he believes it takes a Democrat to shovel, if it does not Yesterday the Board of Works voted to ncrease the number of workmen by thirtysweeping and scraping the streets. There is quite a pull being made to get men on the streets, each Democratic councilman and for his friends. Complaint of Central-Avenue Work The property owners of Central avenue from Fort Wayne avenue to Seventh street are uneasy because of the pavement which is being put down on that street. It is alleged by many that the contractors are not living up to the specifications. Yesterday a notice was filed with the Board of Works, signed by a large number of property ownasking a personal inspection of the work. It is charged the concrete being laid is soft and the stones of an undesirable size. There are no house connections to the Morton-street sewer, but there are a number to the Shelby-street sewer. At present the water would be little contaminated by the Shelby-street sewer. Dr. Ferguson offers no remedy for preserving the purity of the water supply for the lake.

A Civil-Service Board of His Own. Mayor Taggart is not at all embarrassed over the attitude of the Civil-service Association. He holds that the Mayor cannot enact laws or rules for a future administration, and consequently he believes the rules formulated by Mr. Denny to be null and void. He promises to have a civil-service board of his own by the first of the month, when rules will be drawn.

Municipal Notes. Mayor Taggart was compelled to leave his office yesterday because of illness. The Central Cycle Company has been or-dered to stop using Pogue's run for a dump.

GAS SOUTH OF SHELBY STREET.

New High-Pressure Main of Indianapolis Company Connected.

Yesterday morning about 11 o'clock the new high pressure main of the Indianapolis Gas Company was connected with the low pressure system south of Prospect street and east of Shelby street. This, Mr. Pearson thinks, wifl give this part of the city an ample supply of gas this winter. Last winter this section suffered more than any other part of the city from the scalcity of tance from a high pressure main. It has now been practically cut off from the balance of the city and receives its supply direct from the high pressure main that comes down Sherman drive, east of the city, near the Belt railroad.

The Board of Monument Regents held a short session yesterday afternoon. There was little business other than the allowing of a number of small bills. William H. English drew $300 that was due him for salary during the time he was a member of the commission and turned it over to the board to pay for the bronze tablet that has been placed on the statue of George Rogers Clark. Mr. English informed the board some time ago that he would do this, but the matter was not formally con mated until yesterday. The board is having the old model of the monument, that has stood so long in the office, repaired and placed in proper condition. It will then be placed in the State Museum.
